This joint meeting will bring together scientists, engineers and policy makers from academic, industry and federal agencies. Don’t miss this opportunity to highlight your organization’s support of cutting edge exposure science and indoor air quality! Your organization’s name and logo will be seen by over 600 scientists from around the world.

Participating as a supporter or exhibitor in the 2019 meeting offers your organization the opportunity to:

• Connect with exposure science and indoor air leaders and gain insights into future trends
• Amplify your message
• Develop a dialogue and discuss key industry issues and trends
• Provide influence through face-to-face conversations with experts and leaders
• Establish important and new business relationships
• Access to the best and brightest thinkers in the industry
• Contribute to the dialogue on topics of interest to your key prospects
• Raise your visibility
